

Notice #5

EC5103

2021.04.12

Midterm exam: online test

1. Regarding the midterm examination, the initial plan of offline test is switched to online test to comply with university regulations caused by recent Covid-19 alert.

For this, you must provide and adjust your own webcam to show your both hands, desk, and face.

2. The online test will be recorded according to the university regulation regarding the midterm exam. The recorded data will not be distributed elsewhere, but may be used for a cheating related dispute or proof if necessary.

For this, you must sign on the personal information form attached separately and submit a signed copy to Prof. BS Ham via an email at bham@gist.ac.kr before the exam on April. 19th. Without this, you may not take an exam.

3. The midterm covers all chapters lectured during the 2nd ~ 7th weeks but up to Ch. 8.
4. The midterm exam is an open book test. The followings are allowed: textbook, solutions of quizzes & homework, and your own personal notebook.
5. The internet access including any kind of communications is strongly prohibited.
6. The midterm exam will be given during 2:30pm~3:45pm on April 12, 2021.
7. Your answer sheet must be photographed on your desk by your own cell phone or communication device and send the copied file electronically to Prof. BS Ham at bham@gist.ac.kr in 5 min. after the exam.
8. Your original answer sheet must be personally submitted to Prof. BS Ham at Dasan Bldg. 205 in 10 min. after the electronic submission of your answer sheet copy. If you cannot meet this condition, you must get my permission in advance.
9. Cheating is strongly prohibited. Any kind of cheating results in a F grade without an excuse.
10. If you cannot meet anyone above, please let me know by noon, April. 16.